

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM CA AGLOW PRISON/JAIL MINISTRY

For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke 19:10

Dear Friends of CA Aglow Prison/Jail Ministry,

The Christmas Season is a special time of reflection and thanksgiving. Thinking of all the wonders Christ has performed in this past year and what He is doing still and will continue to do until His return, and that is to 'set captives free'! That is what He came to earth for!

Christmas is the hardest time for the Women in prison. They miss their families and children and it is easy to lose hope. That is why they so desperately need your prayers, encouragement and support. They need the love of Christ to heal, change and restore them to their God and families.

As 2013 comes to a close, we would like to say thank you for all you have done this year to help take the Gospel to these hurting women in jail and prison. God has done miracles!

Below is a report from our Central California Field Coordinator going into the Prison with her team.

Not many ladies came tonight because of the Christmas holiday. We had about 40 faithful ladies that were there to praise and worship God and hear the Word. We sang three Christmas songs and a worship song. Eva spoke an uplifting and encouraging word to the ladies. She also encouraged them to share their faith with others. I shared a quick word about their uniqueness that God gave them including their DNA, fingerprints, footprints and even their voiceprints. I also encouraged them to consider giving up to the Lord "those things that easily beset us" before the New Year, to begin the new year with one less bad habit, anger, unforgiveness, etc. The lady I wrote about last week, whose daughter was murdered, asked to share about letting go. She spoke about giving it all to God. Her daughter, who was 4 months pregnant, was beaten to death and the baby died too. The girl had called her mother, in September to tell that she was getting married to the young man who killed her. She was only 24 years old.

This woman is truly undergirded by your prayers. She does not have any anger, hate or malice toward the man. She is only praying for his salvation. She has truly died to self in many ways and is transparent, there is only more Christ in her. She shared with the ladies and then prayed for them. It was awesome and the ladies were touched by the power of God. Then we prayed for and anointed each lady. God is so good! God has great plans for the Aglow Prison Ministry in 2014. He will show He is Lord in the prisons and Aglow will show the Glory of the Lord!!! Love Linda

This poem was written by a woman in the Chowchilla Prison yard when there were hundreds of birds flying around at sunset.

*Ten thousand wings this journey brings
As fairies fly above
I heard the voice of an angel sigh
In a field of fallen doves
And gazed into the eyes of dusk
On the banks of a golden stream
Twas a twilight glimpse of molten stars
On earthly moonlit beams*

A word from Angel in Sacramento

God is good. Susan from our Sacramento Team has been sharing how the Aglow Prison Ministry is going into the woman's jails and prison's giving the good news of Jesus Christ with her friends and family. Today I went to check the mail and Susan's cousin sent a $300 donation to our ministry! They sent a card saying they are honored to give to this ministry because they see the dedication in Susan! 'Thank you Jesus!' Let's give God some praise! hallelujah!!!

I also have spoken to some friends that said they would give a love offering to our ministry to continue purchasing Bibles and Christian books. Please everyone pray about your giving to this ministry, it truly is the heart of God to go into the Jails and bless God's people with the Gospel and continue to give HOPE, FAITH, and LOVE.

HAVE A VERY BLESSED CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR IN HIM.
